But you had to live with it from day to day, week to week, month to month, in order to make it as effective and as speedy and as secure as it was. The Implementation of the Idea Philip Johnson met with U.

The Unbreakable Navajo Code

He was 17 at the time of his enlistment and he was honorably discharged on July 23, 1946. That was followed by intensive courses in transmitting messages and radio operation at the Fleet Marine Force Training Center at Camp Elliot. The idea of using Amerindian languages for military communications went back to World War I when Company D of the 141st Infantry Division utilized eight Choctaws to convey military orders by telephone.

Navajo Code Talker

Oral histories at Cline Library highlight how Code Talkers were also scouts and infantrymen with similar experiences to others in the war, whether facing enemy fire or reveling in friendly comradery. The Code Talkers participated in assaults that the United States Marines led in the Pacific from 1942 to 1945, including the Guadalcanal campaign and the battles of Tarawa, Peleliu and Iwo Jima.

The Incredible Story Of How Navajo Code Talkers Helped Win World War II

On the battlefield, the code was never written down, it was always spoken. The War Department found among the Pueblo Indians the necessary linguistic abilities, actively recruited them into the New Mexico National Guard, mobilized the outfit, and shipped the unit to the islands. He spoke only in Navajo in his video.
