Curriculum Reform in Sub

Our approach targets the root causes of school drop out - to help kids stay in and finish their education.

UNU

The quality of education that children receive is affected to a very large degree by the supporting environment. I recommend this textbook for African students, conservation personnel, policymakers and everyone interested in nature conservation.

Higher Education in Sub

The rapid transformation and expectations put on the higher education sector by various stakeholders have continued to put immense pressure on the sector, in addition to shrinking budgets in a globally competitive marketplace. Conservation Biology in Sub-Saharan Africa provides the most up-to-date study in the field. The analysis encompasses evidence for sub-Saharan Africa, but provides a specific focus on Southern Africa.
