Land Use and Environmental Planning Certificate Program

An institution's policies and procedures for reviewing appraisals and evaluations, at a minimum, should: Address the independence, educational and training qualifications, and role of the reviewer. A report option that merely states, rather than summarizes or describes the content and information required in an appraisal report, may lack sufficient supporting information and analysis to explain the appraiser's opinions and conclusions. In addition, include any notable correspondence received.

2021 Policy Briefs

If an institution outsources any part of the collateral valuation function, it should exercise appropriate due diligence in the selection of a third party.

Such policies and procedures should: Ensure staff has the requisite expertise and training to manage the selection, use, and validation of an analytical method or technological tool. For EZOP help, contact us by using the virtual counter.

Farms Under Threat

Appropriate deductions and discounts should include items such as feasibility studies, permitting, engineering, holding costs, marketing costs, and entrepreneurial profit and other costs specific to the property. Appendix AAppraisal Exemptions Under Title XI of FIRREA, the Agencies were granted the authority to identify categories of real estate-related financial transactions that do not require the services of an appraiser to protect Federal financial and public policy interests or to satisfy principles of safe and sound lending.
