Three exciting years followed at St Ives, in Cornwall - or strictly speaking, at Zennor, a few miles from the fishing town which was still a respected art centre. Please note: All biographies will be fully viewable on Fridays, but the rest of the week biographies are available only to subscribers. Later they moved to London, where his parents separated when he was about 14 years old.

Andrzej Jackowski: The Remembered Present

After the war, along with thousands of others, they chose to go abroad and found that came down to a choice between New York and Liverpool.

Andrzej Jackowski: The Remembered Present

Bachelard, Gaston, The Poetics of Space Boston: Beacon Press, 1994 , p. But the funny thing is I got no feed-back at all, and no copies of reviews or press cuttings were ever sent to me. This generalised term, used mainly for certain figurative artists who became so prominent in that decade, soon passed into common currency.
