Their house is at the corner of Old Highway 11W and Slate Hill Road. Drayton Place moved to the beltline in 2003 and was gone in a year or two.

Miss Nan: Beloved Rebel

Mooresburg had several marble quarries, dating back to the mid 1800s, some of which were owned and operated by the Wright, Stamps, and Kerber families. It is a fascinating true story about Nannie Kinkead Etter, the authors grandmother, who lived those tender years during the Civil War era. The star, who has lost over 65lbs with a strict exercise and clean eating regime, looked incredible in the beachwear - and not surprisingly, fans went wild over the snap.
