The index of consumer confidence rose to 89. And now she is once again galvanizing the public to take to the streets.

What can I do now that I've had my COVID

Se permiten recepciones en interiores y exteriores para hasta tres hogares, incluidos el anfitrión y los invitados.

What I Can (And Can't) Do Now That I Have the COVID Vaccine

At night I lay in bed trying to remember where I'd stored my sleeping bag and bivy sack that have seen me through downpours and blizzards at fourteen thousand feet. In indoor settings outside of one's home, including public transportation, stores, workplaces and schools, face coverings continue to be required regardless of vaccination status.

The very morning we left for Big Sur, I'd received an advance copy of Naomi Klein's new book, On Fire: The Burning Case for a Green New Deal.

'What can I do now to make the most of it?': The pandemic high school senior year

But Naomi's book made me understand justice is at the heart of solving what led to the climate crisis. Where will I poop and pee? Cumberland Valley senior Priya Acharya, right, has long been accustomed to fixing things. Risk arrest if that is what it takes.

So you've had your Covid jab. What can you safely do now?

Yet, they are there in the back of my mind and imprinted on my heart.

‘What can I do now to make the most of it?’: The pandemic high school senior year

Throughout her four years of high school, Priya Acharya had been reluctant to get involved in school activities. We are facing a climate crisis, but we're also facing an empathy crisis and an inequality crisis; the surge of protests over police violence against black Americans has once again highlighted the links between racism and environmental degradation in our country. More than 33 million people in the UK have now received a first coronavirus vaccine dose, while a quarter of adults — just over 13.
