Books: 'Schwabe'

The tall young officer, hands thrust into his pockets, a pipe in his mouth is bending his head down to watch one of his own men fill his own pipe with tobacco. Born in Birkenhead, Studied art as a pupil of Cabanel at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, Paris. Represented in the Public Galleries of Bradford, Doncaster, Dublin, I-Iuddersfield, Hull, Liverpool, Oldham, and Wellington, New Zealand BERGEN Lent by Ernest Marsh, Esq.

Badmin

Aldridge exhibited with the 'Seven and Five Society' at the Leicester Galleries from 1931 to 1933. Allen was educated at Lancing College and then, on the recommendations of the artist Robert Anning Bell and art critic James Greig, at Byam Shaw School of Art, where he subsequently taught. His sketches are a remarkable series of lifelike evocations of the daily routine of warfare that bring home to us the heroism of our defenders in the field.
