Bargello magic; how to design your own (1972 edition)

I recently began to wonder if I underestimated this book. May be very minimal identifying marks on the inside cover. The inside of the book is very good, clean pages and the spine is tight.

This is unusual of me, I am not usually a person who is optimistic the pessimist is often pleasantly surprised however the optimist is often bitterly disappointed. My copy is always full of post-it notes with scribbled ideas on various ways to adopt or incorporate PF's patterns or color schemes in my future projects.
