17th International Congress on Neuromuscular Diseases

About ISEK The International Society of Electrophysiology and Kinesiology ISEK is a multidisciplinary organization composed of members from all over the world in health-related fields and basic science with a common desire to study human movement and the neuromuscular system. Progress in understanding of this group of diseases was hindered by lack of consensus on terminology and definition. This prompted vigorous discussion in succeeding Newsletters.

About ISEK

It was organized by I. The 3rd International Meeting of ISEK was held in Pavia, Italy from August 30-September 9, 1976.

Past Congresses

This meeting will provide different points of view over the conservative treatment of pelvic floor dysfunction, resulting in interesting debates between speakers and participants.

ICNMD 2018
